Customer Reviews

"A Treasury of Polish Cuisine" is a good, bilingual, Polish cookbook, with traditional Recipes given in, both, Polish and English. The recipes are very good, traditional, Polish food. The bilingual nature of the book helps one to learn every day Polish vocabulary. Whether you are a cook looking for a new and different recipe or someone who wants to work at learning the Polish language in a new and different way, this book is for you. Also, this book is for the person studying up to take a trip to Poland. To travel in Poland, a small knowledge of the Polish language is necessary for the best results. The best way to study any language is the 'immersion' technique. Certainly, this book will help in that process.

I bought this book after visiting Poland and trying to learn a little Polish on the side. I like it that the recipes are given in both Polish and English, with a lot of clever drawings accompanying the sections. Especially like the hearty soups, which do remind me of my visit.

horrible, not at all what i thought it would be. The recipes are not worth the purchase of the book. I am sure there are other far better cookbooks out there.
